Dear girls and boys,

Welcome to English 4 Workbook.

Through the exercises in this book you will be able to control your knowledge in English and master the language. You will understand how important independent work is, as it will help you in your life and future studies.

You will find the keys to the exercises at the end of the book. They will help you to give yourselves a correct mark. You should colour ☐, your parents — ☐, and your teacher will colour △. Use red for "5" (excellent), green for "4" (good), and blue for "3" (satisfactory). We hope that in all the three cases your marks will be the same.

We wish you every success.

The New Boy

On Thursday the new boy came into the classroom. He didn’t have any uniform on. Just trousers, a jacket and a shirt. Tom could see that the boy wasn’t quite comfortable. He had a plastic bag with exercise books, pens, pencils, rulers and rubbers in it. The boy stood at the blackboard. Miss Fair talked to the boy, then she said: "Boys and girls, this is Peter Rivers. He is your new classmate. Please, do what you can to make him happy. Peter is your age. Show him our timetable. I hope you'll get on well with each other. Peter will spend a lot of time together with you, and outdoors too. And now our class is over." Miss Fair asked Peter to sit next to Tom at the desk near the window.

The pupils had Maths after that and Tom could see that Peter was not bad at it. He counted well. It was not difficult for him to work at the lesson. It was easy. Then Miss Fair said, "It is half past 12. It's time to have lunch." Peter joined Tom and went to wash his hands, then boys sat down on the carpet and started to open their lunch bags. Tom opened his bag and put in his hand. He took out an old brown apple, some old cheese and some bits of fish from dinner. "Oh, no!" cried Tom. "This is garbage. I have the wrong bag. I took the garbage bag and left my lunch bag at home. I have only garbage for lunch today." All the children laughed and laughed. Then Peter said: "I have two eggs. Why don't you have one? I don't need two. And would you like some bread?" Tom smiled, "Thanks. Now I'll always look in my lunch bag before I bring it to school."

Answer the questions.

2) What was his name?

3) Where did Miss Fair ask Peter to sit?

4) What lesson was before lunch?

5) How well did Peter count? Was he bad at Maths?
6) When did the children have lunch? What time was it?

Andrew's New Flat

Last Tuesday after classes I went to see Andrew's new flat. It was not far from our school. There was a beautiful garden with a lot of trees and flowers opposite it. We came in and went upstairs onto the second floor. Andrew opened the front door with the key as it was locked. As we came into the hall we took off our caps and jackets. The hall was not large but the carpet on the floor made it very comfortable. I saw a big bookcase in the corner, a mirror and three pictures on the walls. In fact the hall was like a little room.

Then we went to Andrew's room, which was behind the sitting room and next to his parents' bedroom. There was not much furniture in Andrew's room. There was a wardrobe near the sofa and next to it under the window his desk with a lot of exercise books on it. There was nothing in the middle of the room, so we could play some games with a ball there. I liked Andrew's armchair very much. It was next to the door and was very large and nice.

Andrew's mother wasn't at home. We went into the kitchen to have lunch. We warmed the soup on the cooker and took some cold meat and vegetables from the fridge. Andrew took some biscuits from the cupboard and we had them with milk. Everything was very tasty. We washed up after the meal. At half past five I left. I think Andrew's new flat is very nice indeed.

B. True, False or Don't know?

5) Andrew has got a very small kitchen. ________________
